

A DIVISION OF THE SOUTHINGTON COMMUNITY
YMCA

MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT
2022

Preamble

The Southington Farmers Market is a division of the Southington Community YMCA. Its Committee members are appointed by its Board of Directors. The Committee directly manages the Southington Farmers Market through its Chairman and Market Master.

Membership

1. Qualifications.

- a. Any CT producer or qualifying local farmer with CT-grown produce shall be eligible for membership in the organization by agreeing to abide by the Bylaws and established rules of operation, signing a Membership Agreement, and providing proof of general and product liability insurance.
- b. A CT producer is one who makes, produces, or grows goods such as plants, flowers, eggs, honey, cider, crafts, jams, jellies, or baked goods, without buying these items from another vendor. Processed foods must conform to state and local regulations. A qualifying local farmer is one who grows produce on his/her own land or on land he/she leases in Connecticut. A farmer may be one farm or a family corporation. A qualifying local farmer must demonstrate that he/she is actually tilling, planting (if an annual crop) cultivating and harvesting the crops with his/her own machinery and labor.
- c. Copies of leases may be required along with an affidavit that land, orchard or greenhouse is not being actively farmed by lessor.
- d. Eligibility for membership shall be determined by the Committee of The Southington Farmers (“the Committee”) in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion.

2. Term. The term of membership shall be seasonal, commencing Friday, June 24 until September 23, 2022.

3. Admission and Expulsion.

- a. New members shall be required to enter into a Membership Agreement with The Southington Farmers Market before they may enjoy the rights attached to membership in The Southington Farmers Market.
- b. New memberships may be accepted at anytime.
- c. Acceptance will be recognized when [1] the Market Master signs the Membership Agreement and [2] the Chairman of the Committee of The Southington Farmers Market accepts the signed Membership Agreement and dues payment. A letter of acceptance or rejection will be sent to the Applicant.

- d. The Committee reserves the right to admit, reject or expel, with or without cause, members in the exercise of its sole discretion.
- e. The Committee may take disciplinary action against any member if the member fails to meet its obligations under the signed agreement, any other agreement entered into between the members and of The Southington Farmers Market Committee, or any directive of the Committee, the Chairman or the Market Master of The Southington Farmers Market Association. The Committee may discipline the member by means of any combination of the following:
 - i. temporarily suspending some or all of its rights under these Bylaws or under any agreement entered into between the member and The Southington Farmers Market;
 - ii. demanding the refund of any monies appropriated to the member by The Southington Farmers Market Association, which shall be due and payable immediately upon demand;
 - iii. suspending the right to participate in future markets; or
 - iv. Expelling the member from The Southington Farmers Market Association.

4. Dues.

- a. The annual dues shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) a year, as set out in Schedule A below, but shall be subject to change at the discretion of the Committee.
- b. It shall be payable to The Southington Farmers Market Committee on or before June 15 of each year.
- c. The fine for bounced checks is set out in Schedule A.

5. Market Site Participation.

- a. All members in good standing may participate at market sites, subject to the discretion of The Southington Farmers Market Committee.
- b. Members are obligated to abide by the Market Rules below. Failure to abide by Market Rules may result in a fine as set out in Schedule A and/or disciplinary action under Section 2 of this Article.
- c. The market master will assign each vendor a location and size of the area the vendor will sell in throughout the market season.

6. Farm Inspections.

- a. The Committee Members may visit any farm as often as needed throughout the season to ensure member compliance with the Membership Agreement and any other contract entered into by the member with The Southington Farmers Market Committee. However, members shall be given at least two (2) days advance notice. Visits shall only be made while a farm representative is present, unless otherwise permitted by the member.
- b. Whether a farming practice is consistent with the Membership Agreement shall be determined by the market master in the exercise of his/her sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that the market masters decision may be reviewed by a meeting of the Committee of The Southington Farmers Market duly noticed and called for such purpose.

- c. The decision of the Committee shall be final, unless subsequently reviewed and modified by the Committee at a meeting.
- d. Farm Inspections in response to a filed grievance shall be further governed by the Grievances procedure below.

Market Rules

1. Set-up.

- a. Each participating member at the market who wishes to sell his/her products (“Seller”) will be responsible for setting up, displaying, and packaging his/her products.
- b. Sellers may not set up more than one and ½ (1.5) hours before market starting time, and may not commence sales prior to the market starting time.
- c. Sellers selling before the market starting time shall be fined according to Schedule A.
- d. Prior to commencing sales, each Seller must have a legible sign identifying the name and location of the Seller’s farm, and post market prices for their items.

2. Clean-up. Sellers shall thoroughly clean up at the end of the market.

3. Market Masters. The Market Master shall announce the commencement of the market, and shall be responsible for mediating any disputes that may arise, and for handing out market laws, rules, and by-laws to Sellers. The Market Master shall report to the Chairman, in writing, any violations by Sellers of the Market Rules, and any disputes that may arise. In the absence of the Market Master, the Assistant Market Master shall assume the Market Master’s responsibilities.

4. Prices and Sales. Prices will be negotiated between Sellers and buyers. The Committee is not responsible for any sales arrangements or warranties concerning any produce bought or sold at markets. However, any complaints against a Seller may be investigated pursuant to the Grievances procedures below.

5. Products must be Seller-Produced.

- a. All fruits, vegetables and other farm products sold must be Connecticut-grown. . Further, Sellers labeling produce “organic” must be certified by the USDA.
